

March 7, 1940

Mrs. Allie V. Jewell

Mrs. C. A. Jewell, one of the early pioneers of the Aberdeen community, was born Allie V. King, at Napoleon, Ohio, on March 5, 1856. She later moved with her parents to Vandalia, Ill., and then to Milbank, S. D. She was married at Big Stone City, S. D., in 1881 to Clark A. Jewell. Immediately following their marriage, she and her husband made their home in Aberdeen. Four daughters were born to Mr. and Mrs. Jewell, one of whom, Flora May, died in childhood. Mr. Jewell passed away on September 22, 1923, whereupon Mrs. Jewell moved to Groton where she lived most of the time until her death.

Mrs. Jewell early joined the Presbyterian church of Aberdeen, in which church she retained her membership until death. For many years she was a faithful worker in that church. She was also a charter member of the Minerva Eastern Star No. 5 of Aberdeen, in which she was a very loyal member.

Mrs. Jewell was called to her Eternal Home on Friday, March 1st, at 4:40 p. m., after a prolonged illness. If she had lived but four days more, she would have been 85 years old.

She leaves to mourn three daughters, Mrs. Maud Scattergood of Sturgis, Mich., Mrs. Gold Scattergood and Mrs. Vera Quiggle of Groton; three grand-daughters, Miss Florence Scattergood of Sturgis, Mich.; Miss Katherin Scattergood and Miss Marjorie Quiggle of Groton; besides many other relatives and friends.